We welcome challenges and seek to achieve whatever the tasks ahead. Ambrosius is an exhibition specialist but also supplies services to events, museums, interiors, show rooms and home decoration. We are happy to serve for our customers with ideas and concepts in 3-dimension spaces.

We pay our attention to details and final results. We try our best to understand the visions of our client, and work hard to deliver with creative, innovative and unique solutions to every project. Our company represents quality, engineering, on-time delivery and service. And these are, of course, qualities that we demand from all our suppliers.

Our clients come from different industries and business areas, each with unique demands and requirements. We fulfill those demands with a team of talented and highly qualified experts. Ambrosius China is an independent supplier. We realize the concept of the best agencies and architects. And we also have our own design team. That's how we can work with multiple customers within competitive sectors.
